Dear Madam/Sir

Designation of Denmark concerning the international registration 1376127 MOTHER FOUNDATION

The Danish Patent and Trademark Office has concluded the search of the above designation.

Absolute grounds for refusal (e.g. lack of distinctive character)

We have not found any absolute grounds for refusing the designation.

Information about search results

We have conducted a search in the relevant Danish registers for earlier conflicting rights, such as trademarks, company names and personal names.

Please find the result of our search by following the link below:

<http://onlineweb.dkpto.dk/pvsonline/Varemaerke?action=104&sagID=MP1376127&language=en>

Please note that the search result has not been examined for relative grounds. You can request an examination of relative grounds by contacting our Office.

Please be informed that there might be conflicting Community trademarks and/or trademarks under the Protocol relating to the Madrid Agreement of which we either had no knowledge at all or about which we had no information as to the extent of the trademarks at the time of our search. You should also be aware that other rights, such as design rights, copyright or closely similar company names, may serve as relative grounds.

TURNING IDEAS INTO ASSETS®

For more information about the searches, please confer the document General Information about Searches found online along with the searches.

General information concerning the relative grounds for refusal

Please note that the rights mentioned in the search report can act as possible grounds for refusal, only if the holders of the cited rights should file an opposition against the validity of the designation in Denmark.

Therefore, you may choose to have the designation published in the Danish Trademark Gazette irrespective of the earlier rights. This allows a third party to file an opposition within a period of 2 months from the date of publication.

Should an opposition be filed against the designation, we will inform you accordingly and invite you to comment on the opposition before a decision is made by the Danish Patent and Trademark Office. If no opposition is filed within the time limit, the designation will be granted full validity in Denmark.

If you wish to overcome the earlier rights before the designation is published, you can choose to:

Supply us with a letter of consent from the proprietors of the earlier rights permitting you to make use of the trademark in Denmark and have the trademark published in the Danish Trademark Gazette and/or

Limit the list of goods and services in order to avoid that the designation covers goods and services similar to those covered by the earlier rights. Please note that a limitation of the list of goods and services should be submitted to the International Bureau (Form MM6) according to Rule 25 of the Common Regulations.

The possibility of overcoming earlier rights through a written consent and/or a limitation of the list of goods and services is also at hand during an opposition procedure.

Further procedure

The time limit to react to this letter is 17 March 2018. Furthermore, it is possible to request an extension of the time limit up to two months after the expiry of the time limit, cf. Art. 14 of the Singapore Treaty on the Law of Trade Marks.

If we do not hear from you within the time limit, the designation will be published in the Danish Trademark Gazette. If you wish the designation to be published before the time-limits expires, you are welcome to inform us accordingly, and we will publish the designation as soon as possible.

Yours faithfully
